

Institutional Attendance Policy

Minimum attendance requirement is 75% in each registered course. Students below the threshold may be detained from the end-semester examination unless an approved relaxation applies.

Attendance Queries

Students should contact the department office with their registration number and supporting documents for attendance-related queries.