

End-Semester Examination Schedule

The end-semester examinations are conducted according to the academic calendar published by the institution. The detailed timetable is released by the examination office.

Examination Registration

Students must complete examination registration within the announced registration window. Late registration is subject to the rules and fees notified by the examination office.