

Academic Calendar

The academic calendar specifies teaching days, registration periods, internal assessments, holidays, and end-semester examinations. Students should follow the latest calendar issued for their batch.

Calendar Updates

If dates change, the institution communicates the revised schedule through official notices.